Revisits Guthrie. "Maloney's Wedding Day" will be here next week. It is the same company which really opened the new opera house, being the second show in it. Those who saw it remember it to be the best Irish farce comedy ever seen in the city. J. L. McCabe, who is well known in this city by all the good folks, is still in the leading role and is reputed the best Irish artist on the stage. The company has not been here since that time. It is a first class attraction and pleased a large audience two years ago. Mr. H. Frazee, manager of the company, is in the city today billing it. He is a very clever fellow and makes friends easily.

Thus. Reagle of Atwater, O., was unable to work on account of kidney trouble. After using Foley's Kidney Cure four days he was cured.
